30. The nations of the world are deeply divided internally and increasingly polarized and violent. The Church worldwide needs to reflect on the Scriptural promise below and see the responsibility that we have - "those who are called by My Name" - to seek the Lord, to repent of our wicked ways, asking him to mercifully hear from heaven, forgive our sin and heal our lands. "If my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land." 2 Chronicles 7:14 ESV

31. Pray for the millions of refugees and internally displaced people worldwide. Pray for persecuted Christians, especially in Islamic, communist and war-torn lands. May God grant them compassion and logistical wisdom in handling the inevitable issues raised by such a migration.
